

Aidan Heck

DATABASE MANAGER & DEVELOPER

objective

Developer with a strong background in database management, editing, and research. Two years of experience working across departments to reach fiscal goals, report accurate data, meet urgent deadlines, and maintain detailed project documentation. Proficient with CSS and JS frameworks and seeking to build accessible design-oriented applications.

professional experience

Mark Morris Dance Group | Database and Research Administrator

Present
2019

- Implemented data management procedures to standardize 17,000+ records in Raiser's Edge database
- Promoted from Data Entry and Research Assistant to current position 9 months after start date
- Drove data-oriented projects within the Development department and issued tax documentation to donors
- Spearheaded donation processing including 2,000+ first-time donors in the last fiscal year
- Created organizational code of conduct documentation with internal working group

Vassar College Libraries | Digital Initiatives Assistant

2018

- Managed metadata and image archival for various digitization projects

education

CareerFoundry | Full-Stack Web Development Program

2021

Vassar College | Bachelors of Arts in English, minor in Japanese | GPA 3.77

2019 projects

- fataleFlix: full-stack database of horror films and cult classics built with MERN stack
- gather: event attendance app built with React
- prattle: chat app built in React Native
- portfolio: single page site built with React

proficiencies

HTML	Bootstrap	Japanese
CSS	jQuery	MacOS
Javascript	PostgreSQL	ChromeOS
TypeScript	GitHub	Windows OS
MongoDB	Heroku	Google Suite
Express	Raiser's Edge	Microsoft Office
React	Salesforce
Node.js	Notion
Vue.js	Asana

contact

aidanheck@gmail.com
(225) 603-6639

linkedin.com/in/aidanheck
github.com/membraned
Brooklyn, NY